

QUALIFICATIONS

BLAKE T. STOFFER

BIOGRAPHICAL & EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Blake Stouffer was born in San Antonio and attended Alamo Heights High School. He graduated in 2004 and then went to Texas A&M on a baseball scholarship and played all four years. He received a degree in Construction Science in the school of Architecture in 2009. At Alamo Heights, he was a High School All American and he received First Team All American Honors at Texas A&M in his Junior Season (2007). He was also National Player of the Year Finalist, First Team All Big 12, led the nation (Division 1) in RBI's, and was named Big 12 player of the week on 4 separate occasions. He was drafted by the Cincinnati Reds after his junior season and then signed professionally with the Washington Nationals after his senior season. Blake is now a licensed Appraiser Trainee with aspirations of obtaining his state certification and MAI designation in the near future.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Alamo Heights High School
Texas A&M University

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

The Beck Group, Dallas, Texas
Stouffer & Associates, LLP